TUESDAY, APRIL 28, 1908.

Plans are being made for a $60,000 factory building for the Campbell Automatic Safety Gas Burner Company which is to be erected on a half-block of ground in the factory district of East Portland.

What a rush there would be in naval enlistments if all the cities in the country could see such a parade of the sailor boys as San Diego was treated to the other day. There would be simply no holding the boys back.

At the special request of the President congress will hold over until after the great meeting of governors and others at the White House. That's right; let the President have a chance to show his guests "my congress."

A good vein of coal has been encountered on the Spencer Butte Coal & Petroleum company's property, 10 miles southwest of Eugene, and the company has sent to Portland for additional machinery to develop the mine.

The Republican state central committee will meet for organization Wednesday, April 29, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, at the headquarters of the Multnomah County central committee, in the Marquam building in Portland.

A resolution indorsing William H. Taft for the presidential nomination was tabled by a rising vote at the New Hampshire state republican convention and the delegates will go to the Chicago convention unpledged and uninstructed.

Mayor Tom L. Johnson has won his eight-year war for three cent fares in Cleveland. The victory came when the Cleveland Electric Railway Company, through F. H. Goff, its mediator, offered to accept $55 a share for its stock as the basis of settlement, the City Holding Company to take over the stock.

When Carrie Nation signified her intention of attending the hearing of the "wets" before the house committee on the District of Columbia, Chairman Samuel R. Smith of Michigan took the precaution of summoning two brawny capitol policemen in case Carrie got busy with her hatchet. She did not appear, however.

Senator Carter has a bill to establish on the summit of the Rocky Mountains the Glacier National Park. This park will include great scenic wonders of the American continent, being almost the only region of large glaciers in the Rocky Mountains. Men who have visited this place declare that it is one of the most remarkable regions in America.

Satisfied with the demonstrations resulting from the exhaustive experiments made by Lew Ogan with the clays to be found in that region, Astoria capitalists have organized the Astoria Clay Products Company, with a capital stock of $15,000 for the purpose of manufacturing all kinds of brick, terra cotta, pottery, drain tile and other clay products.

Timber Land Notice

United States Land Office, Lakeview Oregon, February 18, 1908.

Notice is hereby given that in compliance with the provisions of the act of Congress of June 3, 1878, entitled "An act for the sale of timber lands in the states of California, Oregon, Nevada and Washington Territory," as extended to all the Public Land States by act of August 4, 1892, Charles R. DeLap, of Klamath Falls, County of Klamath, State of Oregon, has filed in this office his sworn statement No. 4042, for the purchase of the sw<sup>1</sup>/<sub>4</sub>sec. 4, n<sup>1</sup>/<sub>2</sub>sec. 4, of sec. 3, tp. 38 S. range 9 E. W. M., and will offer proof to show that the land sought is more valuable for its timber or stone than for agricultural purposes, and to establish his claim to said land before the County Judge of Klamath County, at his office at Klamath Falls, Oregon, on Wednesday the 13th day of May 1908.

He names as witnesses: T. F. Nicholas, L. D. Ritchison, True H. Delap, A. M. Jamison, all of Klamath Falls, Oregon.

Any and all persons claiming adversely the above described lands are requested to file their claims in this office on or before said 13th day of May 1908.
